An Acknowledgment

TOMORROW WE CELEBRATE OUR 52d Business Anniversary.

On November 17, 1857, our late Mr. Edward F. Droop entered the Piano and Music Business in Washington. He was an active factor in the conduct of the affairs of our company up to the time

Now, as during all the years when he guided the policies of our house-building it upon the foundations of Quality from a small beginning to its present magnitude-the same principles of business integrity are observed.

The traditions of our house have been and will be maintained. We desire to thank our friends and the public for their generous recognition of our efforts-for their patronage and support-and to assure them that no endeavor on our part will be spared to still further merit the confidence so bountifully bestowed.

vember 16, 1908.

The last farewell was spoken one year ago today; Our family circle broken when our loved one passed away.

Oh, the memory of that evening, as we waited with aching hearts,

Seeing the one we loved so dear pierced by death's most cruel dart.

Farewell, dear mother, is a solemn word which thrills through every heart.

But, oh, it is the will of God that dearest ones must part.

By HER LOVING HUSBAND AND CHILDREN. ing out will be at an evening reception BY HER LOVING HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

WILDMAN. In sad but loving penembrance of our dear daughter and sixter, AUGUSTA H. WILDMAN, who died one year ago today, November 16, 1908.

The golden gates were open.
A gentle voice said, "Come,"
And with farewells unspoken
She calmly entered home. BY HER MOTHER AND SISTERS

WILDMAN. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear aunt, AUGUSTA H. WILDMAN, who died one year ago today, November 16, 1908. Forget thee! 'Tis a bitter word;
I wish it were unsaid.
